Live Wedding Illustration

Capturing your special day for you to treasure and display

Live wedding illustration works on three levels:

Add to the buzz of your day with an entertaining “side show”. I am discrete but approachable and welcome chatting with guests while I paint.

Enhance the beauty of the event with a pop up gallery of quick guest portraits, creating a gathering point that is constantly evolving.

Receive a hand-made work of art to display, cherish and share, that is totally unique to you.
